

An Evening with Israeli Historian ILAN PAPPE

speaking on

Zionism and the Creation of ‘The Biggest Prison on Earth’

Saturday, March 10 at 7 PM

Friends Meeting at Cambridge

5 Longfellow Park

(a 10 minute walk from Harvard Square)

Facilitator: LEILA FARSAKH

University of Massachusetts Boston

Pappé has been called “Israel’s bravest, most principled, most incisive historian” - John Pilger

This event is free and open to the public.

Ilan Pappé is a peace activist and one of the leading Israeli ‘new historians’ who have been re-writing the history of Israel’s founding in 1948. The expulsion of more than 700,000 Palestinians was the subject of his 2008 path-breaking volume, The Ethnic Cleansing of Palestine.

Among his dozen books is his recently published (2017) The Biggest Prison on Earth: a History of the Occupied Territories, which picks up the story where The Ethnic Cleansing of Palestine left off.

Holding a D.Phil. from Oxford University, Professor Pappé taught for more than two decades at the University of Haifa. In 2008 government pressure and death threats forced him to leave Israel. He joined the University of Exeter in the UK, where he is Professor of the College of Social Studies and International Studies and Director of the University’s European Centre for Palestine Studies.

Co-sponsors: I for3.org, Alliance for a Secular and Democratic South Asia, Alliance for Water Justice in Palestine, AFSC Peace & Economic Security Program, Boston Coalition for Palestinian Rights, Cambridge Bethlehem People to People Project, First Baptist Church in JP, Grassroots International, Harvard Law School Justice for Palestine, Jewish Voice for Peace Boston, Jewish Women for Justice in Israel-Palestine, Massachusetts Peace Action, National Lawyers Guild - Massachusetts, Palestinian House of New England, Peace and Social Concerns Committee of Friends Meeting at Cambridge, Unitarian Universalists for Justice in the Middle East, United for Justice with Peace.